RECITALS

A. Winter Park, Fraser, Granby and Grand County have all experienced rapid growth over the last decade and, consequently, the demand for affordable housing has grown to exceed the available supply;

B. The majority of counties and many cities within Colorado have addressed such housing issues through the creation of housing authorities, whose purpose it is to effect the planning, financing, acquisition, construction, reconstruction or repair, maintenance, management, and operation of housing projects or programs pursuant to a multijurisdictional plan;

C. The provisions of Section 18 of Article XIV of the Colorado Constitution and C.R.S. § 29-1-203, allow Colorado local governments to cooperate or contract with one another to provide any function, service or facility lawfully authorized to each local government.

D. The provisions of C.R.S. § 29-1-204.5 allow Colorado local governments to contract with each other to establish a separate governmental entity to be known as a multijurisdictional housing authority.

E. A multijurisdictional housing authority established pursuant to C.R.S. § 29-1-204.5 may be used by the contracting local governments to effect the planning, financing, acquisition, construction, reconstruction or repair, maintenance, management, and operation of housing projects or programs pursuant to a multijurisdictional plan to provide: (a) dwelling accommodations at rental prices or purchase prices within the means of families of low or moderate income; and (b) affordable housing projects or programs for employees of employers located within the jurisdiction of the authority.

F. Winter Park, Fraser, Granby and Grand County recognize the benefits and advantages obtained by working together to establish and create a multijurisdictional housing authority to provide affordable housing projects or programs for local low or moderate income families and for employees of local employers, and therefore desire to participate with one another in the establishment of a multijurisdictional housing authority serving the interests of residents of Winter Park, Fraser, Granby and Grand County.

NOW, THEREFORE, for and in consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, and obligations herein set forth, the parties hereby mutually agree as follows:
